

Summer Academy 2010

16 - 19 June

Please find attached the registration form. The registration form as well as the conditions and a detailed program can also be downloaded from www.heidelberg-center.org.

Deadline

The Summer Academy is limited to 30 participants. We would appreciate your registration until 12 May 2010.

Registration fee

650 € (general participants)

325 € (postgraduate/PhD students,
"Referendare" and foreign equivalents)

If you register on or before 16 April 2010 you qualify for an "Early Bird Discount" of 10% of the registration fee.

Further Conditions

The registration fee includes participation in all workshops and presentations, course material and social events. The registration fee does neither include accommodation nor travel expenses. Meals and refreshments are only included where served during coffee breaks and where indicated in the detailed program.

In case of cancellation on or before 21 May 2010, 50% of the fee will be refunded. No refund will be made for cancellations that are received after 21 May 2010. For further information please contact Ms. Wiltrud Hillmann, Heidelberg Center for International Dispute Resolution.

Tel: +49 (0)6221 54-2242.

Each year, the Heidelberg Center for International Dispute Resolution in cooperation with the ICC International Court of Arbitration and the German Institution of Arbitration (DIS) organises a Summer Academy on International Dispute Resolution. During the sessions, renowned international speakers introduce the participants to techniques and tactics of Alternative Dispute Resolution and International Commercial Arbitration in interactive workshops and presentations.

For more information:
www.heidelberg-center.org
academy@heidelberg-center.org

7th Summer Academy on International Dispute Resolution

16 - 19 June 2010 at the University of Heidelberg

The Heidelberg Center for International Dispute Resolution in cooperation with the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) and the German Institution of Arbitration (DIS) will hold its 7th Summer Academy on International Dispute Resolution at the University of Heidelberg, Germany, from 16 - 19 June 2010.

Under the guidance of renowned international practitioners, the participants will immerse themselves in techniques and tactics of Alternative Dispute Resolution and International Commercial Arbitration. Course language will be English.

The Summer Academy includes a social program, featuring such events as a welcome reception, a boat trip and a summer party, allowing participants to network among themselves and with panelists while enjoying the historic atmosphere of Heidelberg.

16 June 2010

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Dr. Christian Duve, MPA
Partner
Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer

Negotiation Workshop

Dr. Peter Tochtermann
Judge
and
Hannah Tümpel
ICC Dispute Resolution
Services

Mediation and the ICC Dispute Resolution Services (Workshop)

International Commercial Arbitration

Peter Kraft
Attorney at Law, DIS

Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Herbert Kronke
University of Heidelberg

Dr. Francesca Mazza
ICC International Court of Arbitration

Dr. Patricia Nacimiento
Partner
White & Case

Jan Heiner Nedden
ICC International Court of Arbitration

Dr. Dirk Otto
Partner
Norton Rose

Michael Polkinghorne
Partner
White & Case

Organizing and Conducting an Arbitration under the auspices of ICC and DIS

Interactive Workshop
(3 days)

17 - 19 June 2010

“Professionally and academically, going to Heidelberg became an important part of my CV. It helped me to be considered for a job dealing with international law and arbitration.”

Nicolás Muñoz Montes, Lawyer, Ministry of Economy of Chile

“A fascinating event: Even experienced dispute resolution practitioners can broaden their knowledge.”

Dr. Markus Burianski, LL.M., Rechtsanwalt White & Case LLP, Frankfurt, Germany

“Participating in the Summer Academy was a great choice to hone my International Dispute Resolution skills: a splendid and intense educational experience with articulate speakers, many of whom the most renowned in their field, but approachable and available for questions throughout the entire seminar.”

Silke Noa Kumpf, Solicitor (England & Wales), Hafez Avocats, Cairo, Egypt

“At the Summer Academy the speakers shared their ample knowledge and practical experience with us. These are invaluable assets that specifically helped broaden our horizons.”

Natalia Zibibbo, M.L.B., Abogada (Argentina), Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, Frankfurt, Germany